Drinker Biddle's Dorothy "Dottie" Bolinsky
Highlighted By New Jersey Law Journal Among 40 Under 40

PRINCETON, N.J. -- Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP partner, Dorothy "Dottie" Bolinsky has been chosen by the New Jersey Law Journal as one of their 40 Under 40. The weekly legal newspaper chose lawyers who have created practice niches, demonstrated leadership at work and in the community, and developed a significant book of business or solid record of trial, appellate or transactional work.

In just 10 years of practice, Bolinsky has established herself as one of New Jersey's top real estate lawyers. She is recognized for her ability to structure complex real estate transactions of any nature. Bolinsky's major clients are real estate developers and investors, ranging from Fortune 500 companies to individuals, for whom she handles property acquisitions, financings, state and municipal approvals, and other land-use aspects of multifaceted development projects. At Drinker Biddle, she supervises five real estate associates and three paralegals, while managing dozens of client relationships and ongoing projects.

"We're very proud that Dottie has been recognized by the New Jersey Law Journal as one of the state's outstanding real estate lawyers," said Jonathan I. Epstein, partner-in-charge of Drinker Biddle's Princeton office. "Clients have come to rely on Dottie to close complicated deals of all kinds. Dottie knows how to make things happen and to get transactions closed, and we're proud to count her among our partners."

Bolinsky is also committed to her work within the legal community. She is a trustee of the Mercer County Bar Association and the Mercer County Bar Foundation. She is also a member of the Princeton Bar Association and the New Jersey State Bar Association Real Property, Probate and Trust Law and Land Use Sections. She previously served as Chair of the Mercer County Bar Association Real Estate Section. To read her full biography, please visit www.drinkerbiddle.com.
