Drinker Biddle Partner Dottie Bolinsky Installed as Secretary of Mercer County Bar Association

PRINCETON – Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP Partner Dorothy (Dottie) Bolinsky was installed January 28, 2010, as the secretary of the Mercer County Bar Association.

Dottie, a partner in Drinker Biddle's Real Estate Practice Group, focuses her practice in complex commercial real estate transactions and guiding development projects through the land use planning process, amongst other things. She previously served as a trustee of the Mercer County Bar Association and currently serves on the Association's Budget Committee. She also serves as a trustee of the Salt Shaker Foundation, Inc., a nonprofit organization that raises funds for cancer research and awareness.

Dottie was selected as one of NJ Biz's 2009 New Jersey's Best 50 Women in Business, a 2007 New Jersey Law Journal 40 Under 40, and one of the 2006 Women of Influence in Real Estate by New Jersey Magazine. Dottie was also named the 2004 Mercer County Bar Association Young Lawyer of the Year and was honored with the 2004 New Jersey State Bar Association Young Lawyer Division, Service to the Bar award.

Dottie was installed as secretary at The Mercer County Bar Association General Membership Meeting and Installation Dinner at the Trenton Country Club.
