Andrew M. Grumet Joins Drinker Biddle & Reath's Corporate and Securities Group

Adds Charitable Giving and Nonprofit Practice to Growing New York City Office

PHILADELPHIA — Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP has strengthened its capabilities in the nonprofit sphere with the addition of Andrew M. Grumet as partner residing in the New York City office.

Mr. Grumet's practice focuses on charitable giving and philanthropy and the representation of domestic and international tax-exempt organizations. His clients include domestic and international family foundations, public charities, museums, hospitals, religious organizations, trade associations and social welfare organizations.

He advises on every aspect of philanthropic giving, from formation and organizational structuring to corporate policies, grantmaking and financial reporting.

"Andrew is a leading practitioner in the area of tax-exempt organizations. The firm is excited to add his unique and specialized practice that serves as outside general counsel and oversees the daily operations of donor advised funds and family foundations," said Andrew C. Kassner, Chairman and CEO of Drinker Biddle. "His addition continues the momentum of growth in our New York office and enhances our service in areas such as trusts and estates, intellectual property, tax and real estate."

"We are thrilled to have Andrew join our group as his expertise will be a tremendous asset to our clients," said Neil K. Haimm, Chair of Drinker Biddle's Corporate Practice Group. "We look forward to growing his practice and utilizing his extensive knowledge to advise our clients in New York and nationally."

Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP is a national law firm with 620 lawyers in 12 offices providing client service in areas such as corporate and securities, corporate restructuring, litigation, intellectual property, employee benefits and executive compensation, environment and energy, government and regulatory affairs, health care, insurance coverage, investment management, labor and employment, life insurance and annuities, products liability and mass tort litigation, private client services, and real estate.
