TO THE HOLDERS (THE "HOLDERS") OF GOVERNMENT DEVELOPMENT BANK FOR PUERTO RICO
SENIOR NOTES
(THE "NOTES")

Affected CUSIP Nos.: See Appendix A*

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Wilmington Trust, N.A., is the successor trustee (the "Trustee") under that certain indenture dated as of February 17, 2006 (the "Base Indenture") by and among the Trustee and the Government Development Bank for Puerto Rico ("GDB" or the "Bank"), a public corporation and government instrumentality for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the respective meanings given to them in the Indenture (defined herein).

Events of Default

The above-referenced Notes were issued pursuant to the Base Indenture, as supplemented by those certain supplemental indentures relating to each series of Notes (the Base Indenture, as so supplemented, the "Indenture").

By notice dated September 7, 2016, the Trustee previously notified you of the occurrence and continuance of certain Events of Default arising from the GDB's failure to cure the interest payment defaults identified in the attached Appendix A, column labeled "August 1 Payment."

By notice dated October 12, 2016, the Trustee also previously notified you of the occurrence and continuance of certain Events of Default arising from the GDB's failure to cure the interest payment defaults identified in the attached Appendix A, column labeled "September 1 Payment."

By notice dated November 4, 2016, the Trustee also previously notified you of the occurrence and continuance of certain Events of Default arising from the GDB's failure to cure the interest payment defaults identified in the attached Appendix A, column labeled "October 1 Payment."

The Trustee hereby notifies you of the occurrence and continuance of additional Events of Default arising from the GDB's failure to cure the interest payment defaults identified in Appendix A, column labeled "November 1 Payment" within the 30-day grace period specified in Section 501(1) of the Indenture.

Furthermore, the Maturity Date for the 2006 Series B Notes with CUSIP No. 745177CH6 (the "2006 Series B Notes") was December 1, 2016. As of December 2, 2016, GDB failed to pay the principal due on the 2006 Series B Notes in the approximate amount of $19,195,000. The failure by GDB to pay the principal of the 2006 Series B Notes at Maturity constituted an Event of Default under Section 501(3) of the Indenture.

Additional Defaults

The Trustee hereby further notifies you that GDB failed to pay the interest due and owing as of December 1, 2016 on the Notes identified in the column labeled "December 1 Payment" of Appendix A.

The Puerto Rico Emergency Moratorium and Financial Rehabilitation Act

As set forth in the Trustee's prior notices, the Puerto Rico Emergency Moratorium and Financial Rehabilitation Act, passed by the Commonwealth on April 6, 2016, (the "Act") restricts enforcement of remedies by creditors of GDB. Specifically, it provides that "no entity or person asserting claims or other rights (including a beneficial or assignable interest), no trustee, no collateral agent, no indenture trustee, no fiscal agent, no insurer, and no financial institution that receives or holds funds from such government entity may exercise any remedy, which remedy shall include any right of acceleration or termination, right of set-off, right of attachment or counterclaim related to any covered obligation of such government entity, under any contract or applicable law as a result of (A) non-payment of any obligation arising under or related to any covered obligation of such government entity. . . ." Act 21-2016, § 201(b)(ii).

Executive Orders

Pursuant to his authority under the Act, the Governor issued executive orders (the "Executive Orders") on April 8, 2016 and April 30, 2016 (Administrative Bulletin Num. OE-2016-010 and Administrative Bulletin Num. OE-2016-014, respectively) that, among other things, declared (i) GDB in a state of emergency and (ii) a moratorium on payment of all of GDB's "covered obligations" except deposits and interest obligations that do not require payments in cash, including payment on the Notes identified on Appendix A hereto. The April 30, 2016 Executive Order also affirms the prohibition on the exercise of remedies described in section 201(b) of the Act and states that no entity or person may exercise any remedy, including any right of accelerated payment that is related, directly or indirectly, with the declaration of a moratorium itself. Furthermore, the April 30, 2016 Executive Order ratified and confirmed the April 8, 2016 Executive Order in all respects. The moratorium declared pursuant to the April 30, 2016 Executive Order will remain in full force and effect until the earlier of (i) January 31, 2017, or (ii) revocation of the Executive Orders as provided by the Governor in writing.

Developments Relating to PROMESA Oversight Board

As you were previously notified, on June 30, 2016, President Obama signed the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management and Economic Stability Act (“PROMESA”) into law. Among other measures, PROMESA mandates the creation of a seven-member Finance Oversight and Management Board (the “Oversight Board”), tasked with managing Puerto Rico’s debt restructuring. On August 31, 2016, President Obama announced appointment of the seven (7) members of the Oversight Board.

The Trustee hereby notifies you that the Oversight Board held its third public meeting on November 18, 2016, in Fajardo, Puerto Rico. At the November 18 meeting, the Oversight Board, among other things, declined to certify the Commonwealth’s proposed long-term fiscal and economic growth plan (“FEGP”) dated October 14, 2016, and approved a timeline for submission of a revised FEGP by the Commonwealth (December 15, 2016) and certification of a FEGP for the Commonwealth by the Oversight Board (January 31, 2017). During the course of the November 18 meeting, Commonwealth Secretary of State Victor Suarez apprised the Oversight Board that a separate fiscal plan is being developed for GDB, with a significant amount of the information for that separate fiscal plan being drawn from the Commonwealth’s FEGP. On November 27, 2016, the Oversight Board announced that it has retained Proskauer Rose LLP as lead outside legal counsel, O’Neill & Borges LLC as outside legal counsel and as McKinsey & Company as strategic consultant.

Webcasts of the Oversight Board’s public meetings and other information regarding the Oversight Board’s activities are available on the Oversight Board’s website: <http://www.juntasupervision.pr.gov/Oversightboard1/Pages/default.aspx>.

PROMESA Stay

As you were previously notified, among PROMESA’s provisions is an automatic stay of all liability-related litigation against the Commonwealth, which was or could have been commenced before PROMESA’s enactment. The stay is designed to “allow the Government of Puerto Rico a limited period of time during which it can focus its resources on negotiating a voluntary resolution with its creditors instead of defending numerous, costly creditor lawsuits.” On November 15, 2016, the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (the “District Court”) held in four lawsuits challenging the constitutionality of the Act and the Executive Orders (including a lawsuit being prosecuted by certain holders of the Notes)¹ that cause did not exist to vacate the PROMESA-imposed stay. The District Court found that the true harm resulting to the plaintiffs in the four lawsuits from the continued existence of the challenged provisions of the Act and the Executive Orders is largely (if not purely) pecuniary in nature and that the harm to the plaintiffs would thus not be “permanent” or “irreparable” because the monetary damages incurred by the plaintiffs during the stay could be quantified. The District Court also found that vacating the stay would undermine the comprehensive restructuring approach to the Commonwealth’s debt crisis that PROMESA was designed to facilitate.

Direction to the Trustee

The Indenture provides that the holders of a majority in principal amount of each series Notes currently outstanding have the right, after furnishing indemnity satisfactory to the Trustee, to direct the method and place of conducting all proceedings by the Trustee to be taken in connection with the enforcement of the Noteholders’ or the Trustee’s rights and remedies under the Indenture, provided such direction is in accordance with law and the provisions of the Indenture. The Noteholders’ ability to direct the Trustee is further subject to the requirements of the Indenture (including, inter alia, Section 603 of the Indenture), which, among other things, state that the Trustee shall be under no obligation to institute any suit or to take any remedial action under the Indenture or any other documents relating to the Notes until it shall be indemnified to its satisfaction against any and all reasonable compensation for services, costs and expenses, outlays, and counsel fees and other disbursements and against all liability.

Trustee Reservation of Rights

No delay or forbearance by the Trustee to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon the occurrence of a default, or otherwise under the terms of the Indenture or other documentation relating thereto or under applicable law, shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver thereof or acquiescence therein.
