GOVERNMENT DEVELOPMENT BANK FOR PUERTO RICO
SENIOR NOTES
(THE "NOTES")

Affected CUSIP Nos.: See Appendix A*

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Wilmington Trust, N.A., is the successor trustee (the "Trustee") under that certain indenture dated as of February 17, 2006 (the "Indenture") by and among the Trustee and the Government Development Bank for Puerto Rico ("GDB" or the "Bank"), a public corporation and government instrumentality for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the respective meanings given to them in the Indenture (defined herein).

Events of Default

The above-referenced Notes were issued pursuant to an Indenture, dated of February 17, 2006 (the Base Indenture), as supplemented by those certain supplemental indentures relating to each series of Notes (the Base Indenture, as so supplemented, the "Indenture").

As you were previously notified, GDB failed to pay the interest due and owing as of August 1, 2016 on the Notes identified in the column labeled "August 1 Payment" of Appendix A (the "August 1 Interest Payment Defaults"). Pursuant to Section 501(1) of the Indenture, the Bank had a 30-day period (the "Grace Period") in which to cure the August 1 Interest Payment Defaults. The Trustee hereby notifies Holders that the Bank failed to cure the August 1 Interest Payment Default during the Grace Period, resulting in the occurrence and continuance of Events of Default pursuant to Section 501(1) of the Indenture.

Additional Defaults

The Trustee hereby further notifies you that GDB failed to pay the interest due and owing as of September 1, 2016 on the Notes identified in the column labeled “September 1 Payment” of Appendix A.

The Puerto Rico Emergency Moratorium and Financial Rehabilitation Act

As set forth in the Trustee’s prior notices, the Puerto Rico Emergency Moratorium and Financial Rehabilitation Act, passed by the Commonwealth on April 6, 2016, (the “Act”) restricts enforcement of remedies by creditors of GDB. Specifically, it provides that “no entity or person asserting claims or other rights (including a beneficial or assignable interest), no trustee, no collateral agent, no indenture trustee, no fiscal agent, no insurer, and no financial institution that receives or holds funds from such government entity may exercise any remedy, which remedy shall include any right of acceleration or termination, right of set-off, right of attachment or counterclaim related to any covered obligation of such government entity, under any contract or applicable law as a result of (A) non-payment of any obligation arising under or related to any covered obligation of such government entity. . . .” Act 21-2016, § 201(b)(ii).

Executive Orders

Pursuant to his authority under the Act, the Governor issued executive orders (the “Executive Orders”) on April 8, 2016 and April 30, 2016 (Administrative Bulletin Num. OE-2016-010 and Administrative Bulletin Num. OE-2016-014, respectively) that, among other things, declared (i) GDB in a state of emergency and (ii) a moratorium on payment of all of GDB’s “covered obligations” except deposits and interest obligations that do not require payments in cash, including payment on the Notes identified on Appendix A hereto. The April 30, 2016 Executive Order also affirms the prohibition on the exercise of remedies described in section 201(b) of the Act and states that no entity or person may exercise any remedy, including any right of accelerated payment that is related, directly or indirectly, with the declaration of a moratorium itself. Furthermore, the April 30, 2016 Executive Order ratified and confirmed the April 8, 2016 Executive Order in all respects. The moratorium declared pursuant to the April 30, 2016 Executive Order will remain in full force and effect until the earlier of (i) January 31, 2017, or (ii) revocation of the Executive Orders as provided by the Governor in writing.

Appointment of Members of the PROMESA Oversight Board

As you were previously notified, on June 30, 2016, President Obama signed the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management and Economic Stability Act (“PROMESA”) into law. Among other measures, PROMESA mandates the creation of a seven-member Finance Oversight and Management Board (the “Oversight Board”), tasked with managing Puerto Rico’s debt restructuring.

The Trustee hereby notifies you that on August 31, 2016, President Obama announced the appointment of the following seven (7) individuals to the Oversight Board: (1) Andrew Biggs, resident scholar at the American Enterprise Institute; (2) José Carrión, principal partner at San Juan, Puerto Rico insurance brokerage Carrión, Laffitte & Casellas and former chairman of the boards of the Puerto Rico government's State Insurance Fund and Automobile Accident Compensation Administration; (3) Carlos García, CEO, founder and managing partner of BayBoston and former head of the GDB; (4) Arthur González, senior fellow at New York University's School of Law and former judge of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York; (5) José Ramón González, former president of the GDB and CEO of the Federal Home Loan Bank of New York; (6) Ana Matosantos, financial and budget consultant with the Public Policy Institute of California and former director of the California Department of Finance; and (7) David Skeel, S. Samuel Arsht Professor of Corporate Law at the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

Direction to the Trustee

The Indenture provides that the holders of a majority in principal amount of each series Notes currently outstanding have the right, after furnishing indemnity satisfactory to the Trustee, to direct the method and place of conducting all proceedings by the Trustee to be taken in connection with the enforcement of the Noteholders' or the Trustee's rights and remedies under the Indenture, provided such direction is in accordance with law and the provisions of the Indenture. The Noteholders' ability to direct the Trustee is further subject to the requirements of the Indenture (including, inter alia, Section 603 of the Indenture), which, among other things, state that the Trustee shall be under no obligation to institute any suit or to take any remedial action under the Indenture or any other documents relating to the Notes until it shall be indemnified to its satisfaction against any and all reasonable compensation for services, costs and expenses, outlays, and counsel fees and other disbursements and against all liability.

Trustee Reservation of Rights

No delay or forbearance by the Trustee to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon the occurrence of a default, or otherwise under the terms of the Indenture or other documentation relating thereto or under applicable law, shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver thereof or acquiescence therein.

Notice of Further Developments

The Trustee will continue to provide information concerning this matter to the holders as it becomes available. In order to establish an orderly process for providing to you information concerning developments relating to the Notes and to receive input from you as such developments take place, we ask, if you have not already done so or your holdings of Notes have changed, that you please provide us with the information requested on the attached questionnaire and return the completed questionnaire to the Trustee at the address provided on the attached questionnaire.

Retention of Counsel

The Trustee has retained the law firm of Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP and specifically, Kristin Going of that firm, to represent it in connection with the subject matter of this notice and the Notes generally. Ms. Going's address is Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP, 1500 K Street, N.W., Suite 1100, Washington, D.C. 20005 and her telephone number is 202-230-5177.

Communications with Trustee

If you have any questions concerning this notice, inquiries may be directed to Jay Smith at Wilmington Trust, N.A. at (410) 545-2193 or jhsmith@wilmingtontrust.com, or to the Trustee's counsel: Kristin Going and Marita Erbeck at Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP at (202) 230-5177 (Going)/(973) 549-7076 (Erbeck) or Kristin.Going@dbr.com/Marita.Erbeck@dbr.com. The Trustee may conclude, however, that a specific response to particular inquiries from individual holders is not consistent with equal and full dissemination of information to all holders. Holders should not rely upon the Trustee as their sole source of information. This notice is provided for informational purposes only. The Trustee gives no legal, financial or tax advice regarding the Notes or the matters described herein. Holders should consult their own professionals regarding the Notes and the events described above.
