SENIOR NOTES
(THE "NOTES")

Affected CUSIP Nos.: See Appendix A*

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Wilmington Trust, N.A., is the successor trustee (the "Trustee") under that certain indenture dated as of February 17, 2006 (the "Base Indenture") by and among the Trustee and the Government Development Bank for Puerto Rico ("GDB" or the "Bank"), a public corporation and government instrumentality for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the respective meanings given to them in the Indenture (defined herein).

Events of Default

The above-referenced Notes were issued pursuant to the Base Indenture, as supplemented by those certain supplemental indentures relating to each series of Notes (the Base Indenture, as so supplemented, the "Indenture").

The Trustee previously notified you of the occurrence and continuance of certain Events of Default arising from the GDB's failure to make scheduled payments of principal and/or interest on May 1, 2016, August 1, 2016, September 1, 2016, October 1, 2016, November 1, 2016, December 1, 2016, January 1, 2017, February 1, 2017, March 1, 2017, April 1, 2017, May 1, 2017, June 1, 2017, July 1, 2017, August 1, 2017, September 1, 2017 and October 1, 2017.

Please refer to the Trustee's prior notices for more information regarding those Events of Default.

The Trustee hereby notifies you of the occurrence and continuance of additional Events of Default arising from the GDB's failure to cure the November 1, 2017 interest payment (the "November 1 Payment") default within thirty days.

Furthermore, the Maturity Date for both the 2006 Series B Notes with CUSIP No. 745177CJ2 (the "2006 Series B Notes") and the 2013 Series B-1 Notes with CUSIP No. 745177FQ3 (the "2013 Series B-1 Notes") was December 1, 2017. As of December 15, 2017, GDB failed to pay (i) the principal due on the 2006 Series B Notes in the approximate amount of $10,635,000 and (ii) the principal due on the 2013 Series B-1 Notes in the approximate of $40,000,000. The failure by GDB to pay the principal of the 2006 Series B Notes and the 2013 Series B-1 Notes at maturity constitute additional Events of Default with respect to such notes, both of which were previously in default on account of GDB's failure to make interest payments from and after December 1, 2016 and August 1, 2016, respectively.

Additional Defaults

The Trustee hereby further notifies you that GDB failed to pay the interest due and owing as of December 1, 2017. Appendix A attached hereto identifies the specific notes affected by and the dates of the above-mentioned defaults.

Extension of Moratorium on Payment of Covered Obligations

As you were previously notified, on April 30, 2017, Governor Rossello issued an executive order extending to August 1, 2017 the emergency period declared by the Puerto Rico Financial Emergency and Fiscal Responsibility Act (the "Debt Compliance Act"). In extending the emergency period, the Governor also extended for the same period the effectiveness of the moratorium on the payment of all of GDB's "covered obligations" except deposits and interest obligations that do not require payments in cash (the "moratorium"), including payment on the Notes identified on Appendix A hereto, established pursuant to certain executive orders issued under the April 6, 2016 Puerto Rico Emergency Moratorium and Financial Rehabilitation Act (the "Moratorium Act").

As you were also previously notified, on July 19, 2017, Governor Rossello signed legislation amending the Debt Compliance Act to extend the emergency period under the act and the related moratorium through December 31, 2017. The new law also grants the governor authority to further extend the emergency period and the moratorium by executive order for additional periods of no more than six months each for so long as the Oversight Board (defined below) remains in place.

PROMESA Oversight Board

As you were previously notified, on June 30, 2016, former President Obama signed the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management and Economic Stability Act (“PROMESA”) into law. Among other measures, PROMESA mandates the creation of a seven-member Finance Oversight and Management Board (the “Oversight Board”), tasked with managing Puerto Rico’s debt restructuring. On August 31, 2016, former President Obama announced appointment of the seven (7) members of the Oversight Board.

The Trustee hereby notifies you that the Oversight Board held its eleventh public meeting on December 5, 2017, in New York, New York, at which, among other things, the Oversight Board received an update regarding the Commonwealth’s recovery efforts after Hurricanes Irma Maria, including steps being taken to enhance accountability in the use of federal recovery aid. The Oversight Board also disclosed at the December 5 public meeting that it is considering a requirement, beginning with fiscal year 2019 (which begins July 1, 2018), for certification of a consolidated budget for the entire government of Puerto Rico, which would include not only the Commonwealth’s general fund budget but also the budgets of more than 125 agencies, government instrumentalities, governmental funds and proprietary funds. According to the Oversight Board, certification of a consolidated Commonwealth budget is intended to “improve budgetary controls, increase transparency and enhance fiscal discipline.” Also, on December 4, 2017, the Oversight Board concluded its series of “listening sessions” to receive input from creditors and other stakeholders as it prepares to review and certify revised fiscal plans, with a session held in New York, New York. Previous “listening sessions” were held on November 16, 2017 and November 30, 2017, in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Webcasts of the Oversight Board’s public meetings and other information regarding the Oversight Board’s activities are available on the Oversight Board’s website: <http://www.juntasupervision.pr.gov/Oversightboard1/Pages/default.aspx>.

GDB Restructuring Support Agreement

As you were previously notified, on May 15, 2017, GDB, the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority (“AAFAF”)¹ and certain holders of the Notes entered into a Restructuring Support Agreement (the “RSA”) pursuant to which the parties have agreed to undertake a financial restructuring of GDB (the “Proposed Restructuring”) on the terms and conditions set forth in a Restructuring Term Sheet attached to the RSA (the “Term Sheet”). The parties to the RSA intend for the Proposed Restructuring to be effected through a Qualifying Modification pursuant to Title VI of PROMESA, which provides a mechanism for a territorial issuer and its creditors to effect a voluntary restructuring of the issuer’s bond debt.

As you were also previously notified, on June 19, 2017, GDB and AAFAF announced that parties representing over 50% of GDB’s Participating Bond Claims had signed the RSA and that the RSA had become effective pursuant to its terms on May 17, 2017. Pursuant to the RSA, “Participating Bond Claims” include (i) all claims for principal and accrued interest in respect of the bonds (including the Notes that are the subject of this notice) issued pursuant to the Base Indenture, as supplemented from time to time, (ii) certain deposit claims against GDB identified on Schedule 1 to the Term Sheet, (iii) claims in respect of certain outstanding letters of credit issued by GDB as set forth on Schedule 2 to the Term Sheet, and (iv) claims in respect of certain outstanding guarantees issued by GDB as set forth on Schedule 3 to the Term Sheet.

The Oversight Board conditionally certified the RSA as a Qualifying Modification pursuant to Section 602(g) of PROMESA on July 14, 2017 and authorized GDB to pursue the Proposed Restructuring under Title VI of PROMESA. During a special legislative session in August 2017, the Puerto Rico Legislative Assembly passed legislation to implement the Proposed Restructuring.

As you were previously notified, on October 20, 2017, AAFAF and GDB entered into a First Amendment to the RSA (the “First Amendment”), extending by sixty (60) days certain milestones in the RSA, including the deadline to complete solicitation of the Qualifying Modification and the deadline for entry of an order approving the Qualifying Modification by the U.S. District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (the “U.S. District Court”). As established by the First Amendment, the current deadline to complete solicitation of the Qualifying Modification is December 20, 2017 and the current deadline for entry of an approval order by the District Court is January 9, 2018. Pursuant to its terms, the First Amendment shall become effective once executed by the Requisite Bondholders (as defined in the RSA). A copy of the First Amendment is available on the special website established by the Trustee’s counsel described below.

Title III Proceedings by the Commonwealth and Certain of Its Instrumentalities

As you were previously notified, the Oversight Board has authorized and commenced Title III proceedings on behalf of the Commonwealth (filed May 3, 2017), Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (“COFINA”) (filed May 5, 2017), Puerto Rico Highways and Transportation Authority (“HTA”) (filed May 21, 2017), Employees Retirement System of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (“ERS”) (filed May 21, 2017) and Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority (“PREPA”) (filed July 2, 2017). Each of the Commonwealth, COFINA, HTA, ERS and PREPA seeks through its Title III proceeding to effect a court-ordered plan for the adjustment of its debt.

The Title III proceedings are pending in the U.S. District Court and are being presided over by U.S. District Court Judge Laura Taylor Swain of the Southern District of New York, sitting by designation.

Status of Municipality of San Juan’s Law Suit Challenging the Proposed Restructuring

As you were previously notified, on July 26, 2017, the Municipality of San Juan (“San Juan”) commenced a law suit against the Oversight Board, GDB and AAFAF in the U.S. District Court alleging, among other things, that the Proposed Restructuring fails to comply with the requirements of PROMESA and the U.S. Constitution (Case No. 3:17-cv-2009-LTS (D.P.R.)) (the “RSA Law Suit”).

As you were also previously notified, on September 27, 2017, the U.S. District Court issued an opinion and order denying San Juan’s motion for a preliminary injunction seeking to enjoin “solicit[ing], collect[ing] or tabulat[ing] votes in connection with the [RSA]; and 2) making public any ongoing, preliminary or final voting results on the RSA.” Among other things, the court found that San Juan failed to carry its burden to show that it is likely to succeed on the merits of its contentions that (1) “it has a legal right to set off its deposits at GDB against payment obligations on its loans from GDB as they come due” and (2) “it is a secured creditor entitled to be classified separately from unsecured bondholders for purposes of voting on the proposed RSA.”

Seven (7) other Commonwealth municipalities have been granted leave to intervene in the RSA Law Suit, subject to certain conditions.

On December 1, 2017, San Juan filed an amended complaint in the RSA Law Suit. In addition to the relief requested in the original complaint, San Juan seeks: (i) a declaration that the Oversight Board’s contingent approval of the RSA is invalid because it provides for the taking of CAE (special tax collections used to pay debt service on bonds issued through the Municipal Finance Authority) held in a trust administered by GDB for the benefit of San Juan that are designated by statute for the payment of San Juan’s debt to instead pay GDB’s debt, (ii) a declaration that PROMESA and Article VI, Clause 2 of the U.S. Constitution preempt any interpretation of the GDB Debt Restructuring Act, signed into law on August 24, 2017, that prevents San Juan from exercising its rights under PROMESA, including voting on and asserting objections to any proposed restructuring, (iii) a finding that GDB has breached the trust agreement pursuant to which CAE are held in trust for the benefit of San Juan and GDB’s fiduciary duties thereunder, and ordering GDB to specifically perform its obligations and fiduciary duties under said trust agreement, including by paying San Juan’s debt to GDB by crediting San Juan’s funds at GDB against amounts due; (iv) imposition of a constructive trust on San Juan’s escrowed funds and deposits with GDB, (v) an injunction directing GDB to disburse not less than $21 million for the provision of essential services for the people of San Juan, (vi) an injunction enjoining GDB and AAFAF from submitting to the Oversight Board and the Oversight Board from certifying any RSA that contemplates the use of municipal deposits for the benefit of other creditors of GDB, and (vii) an award of damages.
