Affected CUSIP Nos.: See Appendix A*

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Wilmington Trust, N.A., is the successor trustee (the "Trustee") under that certain indenture dated as of February 17, 2006 (the "Base Indenture") by and among the Trustee and the Government Development Bank for Puerto Rico ("GDB" or the "Bank"), a public corporation and government instrumentality for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the respective meanings given to them in the Indenture (defined herein).

Events of Default

The above-referenced Notes were issued pursuant to the Base Indenture, as supplemented by those certain supplemental indentures relating to each series of Notes (the Base Indenture, as so supplemented, the "Indenture").

The Trustee previously notified you of the occurrence and continuance of certain Events of Default arising from the GDB's failure to make scheduled payments of principal and/or interest on May 1, 2016, August 1, 2016, September 1, 2016, October 1, 2016, November 1, 2016, December 1, 2016, January 1, 2017, February 1, 2017, March 1, 2017, April 1, 2017, May 1, 2017, June 1, 2017, July 1, 2017, August 1, 2017, September 1, 2017, October 1, 2017 and November 1, 2107. Please refer to the Trustee's prior notices for more information regarding those Events of Default.

The Trustee hereby notifies you of the occurrence and continuance of additional Events of Default arising from the GDB's failure to cure the December 1, 2017 interest payment (the "December 1 Payment") default within thirty days.

Additional Defaults

The Trustee hereby further notifies you that GDB failed to pay the interest due and owing as of January 1, 2018. Appendix A attached hereto identifies the specific notes affected by and the dates of the above-mentioned defaults.

Extension of Moratorium on Payment of Covered Obligations

As you were previously notified, on April 30, 2017, Governor Rossello issued an executive order extending to August 1, 2017 the emergency period declared by the Puerto Rico Financial Emergency and Fiscal Responsibility Act (the "Debt Compliance Act"). In extending the emergency period, the Governor also extended for the same period the effectiveness of the moratorium on the payment of all of GDB's "covered obligations" except deposits and interest obligations that do not require payments in cash (the "moratorium"), including payment on the Notes identified on Appendix A hereto, established pursuant to certain executive orders issued under the April 6, 2016 Puerto Rico Emergency Moratorium and Financial Rehabilitation Act (the "Moratorium Act").

The Trustee hereby notifies you that on December 28, 2017, pursuant to the authority granted to him under the amended Debt Compliance Act, Governor Rossello issued Executive Order No. OE-2017-076 extending the emergency period and the moratorium through June 30, 2018.

PROMESA Oversight Board

As you were previously notified, on June 30, 2016, former President Obama signed the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management and Economic Stability Act ("PROMESA") into law. Among other measures, PROMESA mandates the creation of a seven-member Finance Oversight and Management Board (the "Oversight Board"), tasked with managing Puerto Rico's debt restructuring. On August 31, 2016, former President Obama announced appointment of the seven (7) members of the Oversight Board.

The Trustee hereby notifies you that on December 20, 2017, the Oversight Board extended to March 9, 2018 and April 20, 2018, respectively, the deadlines for GDB to submit a revised Fiscal and Economic Growth Plan (a "Fiscal Plan") and for the Oversight Board to certify GDB's revised Fiscal Plan. On December 18, 2017, AAFAF (defined below) released a “Summary of Bank Account Balances for Puerto Rico Governmental Instrumentalities as of November 30, 2017,” disclosing, among other things, that an initial review of bank account balances at all Puerto Rico government entities showed a balance of nearly $6.9 billion. The Oversight Board promptly announced that it would conduct an independent forensic investigation into the nearly $6.9 billion amount held on deposit in government bank accounts and would hold a public hearing in January 2018 that will focus on the sources and uses of those funds, as well as on the nature of their legal restrictions. Also, by letters dated December 12 and 21, 2017, the Oversight Board set out certain principles to guide GDB (and other Commonwealth entities) in the preparation of their FY 2019 budgets, as well as a timetable for completing the budget process.

Webcasts of the Oversight Board’s public meetings and other information regarding the Oversight Board’s activities are available on the Oversight Board’s website: <http://www.juntasupervision.pr.gov/Oversightboard1/Pages/default.aspx>.

GDB Restructuring Support Agreement

As you were previously notified, on May 15, 2017, GDB, the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority (“AAFAF”)¹ and certain holders of the Notes entered into a Restructuring Support Agreement (the “RSA”) pursuant to which the parties have agreed to undertake a financial restructuring of GDB (the “Proposed Restructuring”) on the terms and conditions set forth in a Restructuring Term Sheet attached to the RSA (the “Term Sheet”). The parties to the RSA intend for the Proposed Restructuring to be effected through a Qualifying Modification pursuant to Title VI of PROMESA, which provides a mechanism for a territorial issuer and its creditors to effect a voluntary restructuring of the issuer’s bond debt.

As you were also previously notified, on June 19, 2017, GDB and AAFAF announced that parties representing over 50% of GDB’s Participating Bond Claims had signed the RSA and that the RSA had become effective pursuant to its terms on May 17, 2017. Pursuant to the RSA, “Participating Bond Claims” include (i) all claims for principal and accrued interest in respect of the bonds (including the Notes that are the subject of this notice) issued pursuant to the Base Indenture, as supplemented from time to time, (ii) certain deposit claims against GDB identified on Schedule 1 to the Term Sheet, (iii) claims in respect of certain outstanding letters of credit issued by GDB as set forth on Schedule 2 to the Term Sheet, and (iv) claims in respect of certain outstanding guarantees issued by GDB as set forth on Schedule 3 to the Term Sheet.

The Oversight Board conditionally certified the RSA as a Qualifying Modification pursuant to Section 602(g) of PROMESA on July 14, 2017 and authorized GDB to pursue the Proposed Restructuring under Title VI of PROMESA. During a special legislative session in August 2017, the Puerto Rico Legislative Assembly passed legislation to implement the Proposed Restructuring (the “GDB Debt Restructuring Act”).

¹ Pursuant to Act 2-2017, AAFAF has been given the sole responsibility to renegotiate, restructure and/or reach an agreement with creditors on all or part of the debt issued by any government instrumentality of the Commonwealth.

As you were previously notified, on October 20, 2017, AAFAF and GDB entered into a First Amendment to the RSA (the "First Amendment"), extending by sixty (60) days certain milestones in the RSA, including the deadline to complete solicitation of the Qualifying Modification and the deadline for entry of an order approving the Qualifying Modification by the U.S. District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (the "U.S. District Court"). As you were also previously notified, AAFAF and GDB entered into a Second Amendment to the RSA dated as of December 15, 2017 (the "Second Amendment"), extending by an additional ninety (90) days the RSA deadlines for completing solicitation of the Qualifying Modification and for entry of an order approving the Qualifying Modification by the U.S. District Court. Copies of the First Amendment and Second Amendment are available on the special website established by the Trustee's counsel described below.

GDB and AAFAF have confirmed in recent court filings in the RSA Law Suit (defined below) that GDB has not begun to solicit votes from creditors with respect to the RSA.

Status of Municipality of San Juan's Law Suit Challenging the Proposed Restructuring

As you were previously notified, on July 26, 2017, the Municipality of San Juan ("San Juan") commenced a law suit against the Oversight Board, GDB and AAFAF in the U.S. District Court alleging, among other things, that the Proposed Restructuring fails to comply with the requirements of PROMESA and the U.S. Constitution (Case No. 3:17-cv-2009-LTS (D.P.R.)) (the "RSA Law Suit").

As you were also previously notified, on September 27, 2017, the U.S. District Court issued an opinion and order denying San Juan's motion for a preliminary injunction seeking to enjoin "solicit[ing], collect[ing] or tabulat[ing] votes in connection with the [RSA]; and 2) making public any ongoing, preliminary or final voting results on the RSA." Among other things, the court found that San Juan failed to carry its burden to show that it is likely to succeed on the merits of its contentions that (1) "it has a legal right to set off its deposits at GDB against payment obligations on its loans from GDB as they come due" and (2) "it is a secured creditor entitled to be classified separately from unsecured bondholders for purposes of voting on the proposed RSA."

Seven (7) other Commonwealth municipalities have been granted leave to intervene in the RSA Law Suit, subject to certain conditions.

On December 1, 2017, San Juan filed an amended complaint in the RSA Law Suit. The Trustee refers holders to prior Trustee notices for more information regarding the specific relief requested by San Juan in its amended complaint. On January 8, 2018, the defendants in the RSA Law Suit filed motions to dismiss San Juan's amended complaint, arguing, among other things, that the GDB Restructuring Act divested all Puerto Rico municipalities of authority to challenge the RSA and that several of San Juan's claims challenging the RSA are not ripe for adjudication because they depend on uncertain and contingent events, including solicitation of the votes of GDB's creditors with respect to the RSA and an additional certification by the Oversight Board that such solicitation complied with the requirements of Title VI of PROMESA. Responses to the motions to dismiss are currently due January 22, 2018.

Direction to the Trustee

The Indenture provides that the holders of a majority in principal amount of each series Notes currently outstanding have the right, after furnishing indemnity satisfactory to the Trustee, to direct the method and place of conducting all proceedings by the Trustee to be taken in connection with the enforcement of the Noteholders' or the Trustee's rights and remedies under the Indenture, provided such direction is in accordance with law and the provisions of the Indenture. The Noteholders' ability to direct the Trustee is further subject to the requirements of the Indenture (including, inter alia, Section 603 of the Indenture), which, among other things, state that the Trustee shall be under no obligation to institute any suit or to take any remedial action under the Indenture or any other documents relating to the Notes until it shall be indemnified to its satisfaction against any and all reasonable compensation for services, costs and expenses, outlays, and counsel fees and other disbursements and against all liability.

Trustee Reservation of Rights

No delay or forbearance by the Trustee to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon the occurrence of a default, or otherwise under the terms of the Indenture or other documentation relating thereto or under applicable law, shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver thereof or acquiescence therein.
