NOTICE OF INTEREST PAYMENT DEFAULT

TO THE HOLDERS (THE "HOLDERS") OF GOVERNMENT DEVELOPMENT BANK FOR PUERTO RICO
SENIOR NOTES
(THE "NOTES")

Affected CUSIP Nos.: See Appendix A*

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Wilmington Trust, N.A., is the successor trustee (the "Trustee") under that certain indenture dated as of February 17, 2006 (the "Indenture") by and among the Trustee and the Government Development Bank for Puerto Rico ("GDB" or the "Bank"), a public corporation and government instrumentality for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the respective meanings given to them in the Indenture (defined herein).

Interest Payment Default

The above-referenced Notes were issued pursuant to an Indenture, dated of February 17, 2006 (the Base Indenture), as supplemented by those certain supplemental indentures relating to each series of Notes (the Base Indenture, as so supplemented, the "Indenture").

As of the date of this notice, GDB has failed to pay the interest due and owing as of August 1, 2016 on the Notes identified in Appendix A. Pursuant to Section 501(1) of the Indenture, the Bank has a 30-day grace period in which to cure the defaulted interest payments, whereupon, the Bank failing to make such payments, the payment defaults will ripen into Events of Default.

The Puerto Rico Emergency Moratorium and Financial Rehabilitation Act

The Trustee hereby further notifies you that on or about April 6, 2016, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico passed the Puerto Rico Emergency Moratorium and Financial Rehabilitation Act (the "Act"). Among other things, the Act restricts enforcement of remedies by creditors of GDB. Specifically, it provides that “no entity or person asserting claims or other rights (including a beneficial or assignable interest), no trustee, no collateral agent, no indenture trustee, no fiscal agent, no insurer, and no financial institution that receives or holds funds from such government entity may exercise any remedy, which remedy shall include any right of acceleration or termination, right of set-off, right of attachment or counterclaim related to any covered obligation of such government entity, under any contract or applicable law as a result of (A) non-payment of any obligation arising under or related to any covered obligation of such government entity. . . .” Act 21-2016, § 201(b)(ii).

Executive Orders

Pursuant to his authority under the Act, the Governor issued executive orders (the “Executive Orders”) on April 8, 2016 and April 30, 2016 (Administrative Bulletin Num. OE-2016-010 and Administrative Bulletin Num. OE-2016-014, respectively) that, among other things, declared (i) GDB in a state of emergency and (ii) a moratorium on payment of all of GDB’s “covered obligations” except deposits and interest obligations that do not require payments in cash, including payment on the Notes identified on Appendix A hereto. The April 30, 2016 Executive Order also affirms the prohibition on the exercise of remedies described in section 201(b) of the Act and states that no entity or person may exercise any remedy, including any right of accelerated payment that is related, directly or indirectly, with the declaration of a moratorium itself. Furthermore, the April 30, 2016 Executive Order ratified and confirmed the April 8, 2016 Executive Order in all respects. The moratorium declared pursuant to the April 30, 2016 Executive Order will remain in full force and effect until the earlier of (i) January 31, 2017, or (ii) revocation of the Executive Orders as provided by the Governor in writing.

Direction to the Trustee

The Indenture provides that the holders of a majority in principal amount of each series Notes currently outstanding have the right, after furnishing indemnity satisfactory to the Trustee, to direct the method and place of conducting all proceedings by the Trustee to be taken in connection with the enforcement of the Noteholders’ or the Trustee’s rights and remedies under the Indenture, provided such direction is in accordance with law and the provisions of the Indenture. The Noteholders’ ability to direct the Trustee is further subject to the requirements of the Indenture (including, inter alia, Section 603 of the Indenture), which, among other things, state that the Trustee shall be under no obligation to institute any suit or to take any remedial action under the Indenture or any other documents relating to the Notes until it shall be indemnified to its satisfaction against any and all reasonable compensation for services, costs and expenses, outlays, and counsel fees and other disbursements and against all liability.

Trustee Reservation of Rights

No delay or forbearance by the Trustee to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon the occurrence of a default, or otherwise under the terms of the Indenture or other documentation relating thereto or under applicable law, shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver thereof or acquiescence therein.
